DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of the embodiment depicted in figures 1-5 set forth in claims 1-3 in the reply filed on February 25, 2005 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

3. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Machacek (US 6,595,690).

Flange portion 34 is permanently attached to bag wall via adhesive 42 and has a line of weakness at 50.

Machacek is silent regarding specific materials for the bag walls, zipper closure, and the adhesive, only that suitable plastic is utilized. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the bag, flange and sealant of polypropylene and having specific material properties, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice.

4. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Buckman et al. (US 6,354,738).

Flange portion 34 is permanently attached to bag wall via adhesive 42 and has a line of weakness at 50.

Art Unit: 3727

Buckman is silent regarding specific materials for the bag walls, zipper closure, and the adhesive, only that suitable plastic is utilized. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the bag, flange and sealant of polypropylene and having specific material properties, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed February 25, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument that the bags of Machacek and Buckman are not specifically disclosed to be used in a retort process, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. See In re Casey, 370 F.2d 576, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 312 F.2d 937, 939, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963).

Applicant at page 11, paragraph 1 of the response filed February 25, 2005 asserts the material of the bag components of the instant invention are selected based upon the intended use of the bag in a retort process. Thus, supporting the examiner's position stated in the rejection above.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Borchardt et al is cited for teaching a closure fastening device "made of a thermoplastic material selected from the group consisting of polyolefins such as polyethylene, polypropylene, and polybutylene” as well as specific material properties such as flow index. Wanic et al (US 2002/0150781) teaches peel seals having specific material properties and composition. Ito et al teaches a retortable bag having specific material properties and composition.

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Various prior art closures teaching features similar to those disclosed and/or claimed are cited for their disclosures.

9. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (703) 872-9306. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into Group 3720 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

10. It is called to applicant's attention that if a communication is faxed before the reply time has expired, applicant may submit the reply with a "Certificate of Facsimile" which merely asserts that the reply is being faxed on a given date. So faxed, before the period for reply has expired, the reply may be considered timely. A suggested format for a certificate follows:

I hereby certify that this correspondence for Application Serial No. _____ is being facsimiled to The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office via fax number (703) 872-9306 on the date shown below:

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate
